“Education is not the learning of facts but training the mind to think” - Albert Einstein

The basic purpose of education is to enlighten one's mind and soul so as to broaden one's perspective. I am proud to say that Trinity College is constantly scaling new heights with excellent professional training to the students so that they can evolve as responsible citizens. I am happy that the department of Commerce is releasing its 6th volume of 'Commerce spectrum' by Department of Commerce. I appreciate the efforts of the department to bring out this newsletter in a very innovative and creative way. Wishing you God's Blessings.

Message - Dean, Academics

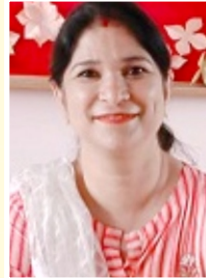

“ Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world”

Dr. Puja Gaba

Trinity College is committed to make the students not only academically strong and professionally perfect but also to make them sensitized and civilized human beings. Academic excellence and creativity are in the pulse of the Department of commerce. I extend my heartfelt gratitude and appreciation for the commendable work done by the PG Department of Commerce for releasing their newsletter. My best wishes to the department for their creative endeavor.

HOD's Message

Dr. Inderpreet Kaur

Commerce constitutes the world dynamic in terms of our financial existence on this planet. It's the driving force which guides our way to micromanage the world of finance. We are committed to transform our students as corporate citizens and to dive deep in this world of opportunities.

I take immense pride to introduce 6th edition of the newsletter of our department: "Commerce Spectrum". It encapsulates all the events and achievements during the last academic session.

I am grateful to our lighthouse of Knowledge and inspiration Director Rev. Fr. Peter Kavumpuram and worthy principal Dr. Ajay Prashar for their encouragement and support. I congratulate my team members for their great contribution towards this newsletter.
